ABSTRACT

Our motto is 'It is better to worship in a temple' and 'Do not live in a city without a temple'. Thus 'spirituality' and 'worship of the gods' have been well developed and rooted since the time of our forefathers. All the best core tenets of our Hinduism are one of temple and worship. All the beauty, glory and majesty of the deities are reflected in the growth and perpetuation of the spiritual norm. Numerous texts such as Thevaram, Thiruvashakam, Tirupukal, Kandapuramam, and rare epics such as the Ramayana and the Mahabharata are expressions of spirituality in our Hindu religion. These Hindu texts make the glory of Hinduism known to the world.

I. INTRODUCTION

Religions such as Jainism, Vaiganism, Vaishnavism, and Buddhism appeared in ancient times. According to their religion, six daily pujas were performed for the Lord. These were promoted by the kings of the time in all sorts of forms of gold, material, and grants. We know that the lands were also given to the temple and grew spiritually. This was continued by the Sivacharyas through their lineage. Its ethics have been unwavering.

It is necessary to mention here the throat of the Sivacharyas in the deities thus held. This is what the great Purana writer Sheikh Peruman has humbly said, The study of the influence of the Sun, Guru and Ketu planets in the horoscopes of the Sivacharyas has been studied in reference to the throat of such Sivacharyas.

Gurus, also known as Sivacharyas, do a wonderful job of cultivating godliness in the minds of the priests by reciting the Vedic mantras they have learned to others. This is their deity. His advice and counsel can make a positive difference in the minds of the devotees who come to tell God their grievances and help them to forget their sorrows and worries and bring peace of mind and happiness.

The Sivacharyas have been serving the Lord with peace of mind since time immemorial, the work of 'Sivacharyas' as their clan and optional profession. They have been teaching the scriptures and Sivagama rituals to others from an early age and preparing them for the work of Sivacharya.

II. SIVACHARYAS

The work of Sivacharya is greatly desired by the AdiSaiva devotees. It is a great work that can give peace of mind and happiness. These Sivacharyas are the ones who follow the Vedic mantras and the Sivagama system regularly. The Sivacharyas are very diligent in their devotion to God and spirituality and are very important in guiding people to practice spirituality.

After a period of time the Vedic mantras and Sivagama worship are taught in a special way in the Vedic school and are developed into excellent Sivacharyas. In the early days, the teacher would listen to all the scriptures and Sivagama methods through Sivacharya and record them in his mind. Later he was taught the Vedic and Sivagama methods of writing with his fingers in the sand and with a stylus in the palm grove. Everyone from the king to the common citizen went in search of the teacher's place of work and gave him assignments and educated him by imprinting in his mind what he had taught.
