DISCUSSION

According to the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated July 27, 2017 № PP-3152 "On the establishment of the Chirchik State Pedagogical Institute in Tashkent region", primary school teachers of preschool, school and out-of-school educational institutions To meet the needs of teachers, especially in specific subjects and foreign languages, to provide educational institutions in districts and rural areas with highly qualified pedagogical staff, and to establish a system of training of highly qualified pedagogical personnel in accordance with international standards. and to improve the quality of education.

The Strategy of Action for the Five Priorities of Development of the Republic of Uzbekistan for 2017-2021 states that concrete mechanisms for improving the quality of life of our people are identified, and that this strategy should attract attention not only of our people, but of the world community. underlining that it has become an important document of interest".[1]

One of the factors in the development of education is the introduction of new teaching technologies. In addition to their specialty, the teacher must have the required pedagogical and psychological knowledge, the necessary pedagogical minimums, which is a combination of new pedagogical technologies and teaching methods.[2]

February 18, 2020 The Chirchik State Pedagogical Institute of Tashkent region is represented by the chair of the 19/1 group Kukiyev Boburmirzo Bakhodir uulu and Bekkulov Kudrat Shaydullaevich. students' creative work and meeting with parents. At the event, the head of the Department of Fine Arts X. Sultanov and members of the department discussed the creative work of students. He was pleased to announce the exemplary creative work of the 19/1 group. There was also talk of the role of the hobby groups and the process of making these creative works more and more exemplary. Gafurjon Mukhamedov, a rector of the Chirchik State Pedagogical Institute in Tashkent, thanked the parents for the fact that the parents who were invited to the event were doing really well. and expressed their sincere gratitude. In the course of the talk the teachers of the department of "Fine Arts" also thanked the teachers. Kim, Suhyun, a professor at DANOOK UNIVERSITY, who presented the first-year students at the creative exhibition, commented, "I liked the work of the first-year students. There is a lot of hard work of the teachers who direct these students to the right education and the hobby." Foreign guests were very pleased with the "Layout" project, "Applied Arts" and "Carpentry". The fact that guests have a good time for meaningful leisure time helps them to get more knowledge and education. Kim, Suhyun said that the education of Uzbek youth in these conditions is a good indication of the reforms being implemented in your country.

- The President's Address to the Parliament was received with great interest by our people. It focuses on education, as well as in all areas. Most importantly, there are priorities for all stages of education. The system of pre-school education has its own peculiarities as the first element of education. We have to admit that until recently this area was neglected. In recent years, great attention has been paid to this area under the leadership of our esteemed President. Please tell us your views on the role of pre-school education in society.

Involvement of students from the 1st year in such creative work can be the first step towards qualitative staffing in the preparation of general education schools. The fact that students enrolled in the current 'Visual Arts and Engineering Graphics' only through creative examinations is important for the training of qualified personnel in the field of education. Education should serve as a foundation for the future.
